Cordial Reception.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LONDON, June 15.—Wilson Marshall, of the New York Yacht Club, owner of the yacht Atlantic, which won the transAtlantic race for the Emperor's cup, was presented by Sir Thomas Lipton to Kfug
Edward at Windsor Castle yesterday.
His Majesty received Mr. Marshall very graciously and inquired about the ocean race. He said it would give him great pleasure to visit Mr. Marshall's yacht before it left England. Mr. Marshall, havling remarked how much himself and other American yacht owners would like to compete for a King's cup in English
waters, the King said it always gave hu
the greatest pleasure to do anything for the encouragement of yachting. A fine speciacle of the racers was pre-sented from the grand stand. Delhi's supporters were jubilant at his appa-rently easy path to victory, but their cheers of encouragement were turned to dismay when the Keene colors began to lag and Burns drew his whip on the favorite. This was a sign to the excited watchers that Delhi had begun to thre in his headlong flight. The signs were not deceptive, for as he swung around

Took No Chances.

Beldame's burst of speed through the stretch was well timed, and none of the others got within a length and one-hall in the last stage of the race. First Mason moved up and with Proper at his side, Jacquin close behind, and passed the defeated favorite. As in all his races, the Jennings colt came through the last furiong with a great rush, and secured second prize. First Mason was only a length behind, in third place, after having run an exceedinly good race from the rear. O'Neill used his whip freely in the finish on Beldame, taking no chances of losing his hard earned place in front. The victory was extremely popular. Princeton Foot Ball Schedule.

Returns From the Second Day's Primary in Nor-

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., June 15 .- Colonel Walter H. Taylor, a banker, who was the adjutant-general on General Robert E. Lee's staff during the Civil War, spoke indignantly to-day against the action of the Royal Arcanum in raising the rates

the Royal Areanum in raising the rates on old men.

Referring to the order for increased rates of premiums, he says: "The occasion calls for heroic action. So the decree goes forth, 'Freeze out the old men.' There are ten thousand of them; they must die soon; this means $3,000,000 for the Royal Areanum; and what becomes of the boasted surplus of $2,500,000? Such seems to have been the argument.

for twenty-six years. During that period I have responded to all demands made upon me; but from the reading of this upon me; but from the reading of this new order, I conclude that the grievance against me is that I have not died. I still live, but, as I am getting perilously near the line of departure, I must be gotten rid of or be unmercifully bled."

The Royal Arcanum has several strong lodges here, and they propose to test the validity of the increase in the courts or to retire.

The Journeymen Plumbers met to-night to discuss the conditions and to determine whether or not to strike. There is an abundance of work, and some of the contractors have large jobs; hence those of the Journeymen who favor a strike declare this to be the favorable time. Returns from the second day's voting of the Democratic primary indicate for the city offices, which were not decided by the voting on Tuesday, as follows:

James F. Duncan, attorney; John F. Lawler, sheriff; H. S. Herman, treasurer, E. J. Gorman, cdlector; Abe Moses, street inspector.

The majorities are surprising in the overwhelming defeat of the good government faction, with the administration of which the people have become dissatisfied. There were only two good government candidates elected, and they have abandoned the faction.

There is a complete political revolution. The citizens have revolted against the scandals of the reformers.
